Garfield Hts. residents appeal to city officials for extension of deadline for repairs to abate flooding issues

By Ellen Psenicka

Several residents of East 102 Street attended Monday night's meeting of Garfield Heights Council to seek an additional extension to their deadline to make home repairs necessary to abate the flooding issues the street has been plagued with for years.

City Engineer David Krock said the Hydro-Brakes installed on the street are working to keep the overflow from the area's record spring rainfall in the streets and not in the basements of residents. He said when the problems with East 102 Street were being addressed that it was decided some repairs would have to be handled on the "private side."

The East 102 Street woman said "the deadline of 60 days isn't going to work to get the money and do the repairs."

Mayor Vic Collova said this wasn't the first extension of time the residents had been given and at some point a deadline must be enforced.

Law Director Tim Riley said he would discuss with officials about having the time line extended, "but at some point, like the mayor said, a deadline will have to be met." He recommended that residents make some progress toward getting the repairs completed, which would help their efforts to extend the timeline for completion of the work.

Economic Development Director Noreen Kuban said she would clarify with Cuyahoga County officials the loan program available to residents to pay for the repairs and post it on the city's website.

Pollack retiring

Senior Services Director Kathy Rush-Parsson announced that Garfield Heights Family Resource Center Director Ruth Pollack would be retiring at the end of June. Rush-Parsson said she is a licensed social worker and would be handling Family Resource Center calls starting July 1, at 216-475-3244.

Iron Ward Music Festival returns to Slavic Village Monday

Slavic Village's Iron Ward Festival, which began back in 2005 as the Warszawa Music Festival, returns to the neighborhood this Monday, June 17, for its 15th summer of free, live music and multi-generational fun, under the evening sky at Dan Kane Park at East 65th Street near Broadway Avenue.

The popular "News of the Week" segment will be featured at intermissions, and there will be free, cool treats served on evenings with temperatures over 85 degrees. Concerts continue weekly through August.

Kicking off the season next Monday will be award-winning singer-songwriter-guitarist Jerry Allen, who will perform an extended medley of evocative songs in the Americana-country-pop genre.

On Monday, June 24, Ralph Szubski, the Accordion Man, will present his popular Polish (and Slovenian and American) polka party. It'll be Kielbasa Nite, with locally-produced, genuine smoke-house sausage sandwiches for sale.

For the annual pre-Fourth of July celebration, Freddie Pollard's Old Skool Band will provide the entertainment at the annual Old-Fashioned Independence Day Spectacular, this year to be held on Wednesday, July 3, the evening before the national holiday.

More July and August

concert headliners will be announced at later dates in this newspaper.

This Saturday, June 15, from 9 to 11 a.m., there will be a cleanup of Dan Kane Park in preparation for the season premiere. Interested volunteers are invited to bring basic yard tools to help with the work. For details, call 216-469-4806.

The Iron Ward Festival is made possible through the volunteer efforts of many committed, grassroots activists, along with the support of Ward 12 Councilman Tony Brancatelli, Slavic Village Development, Neighborhood Connections: Neighbor Up!, Shannon Landscape and Snowplowing, Theodore Michols, and the East 63rd Block Club.

Byrider hosts free event

J.D. Byrider has changed its name to Byrider.

To celebrate the launch of the new Byrider brand, the company is hosting a free event on Saturday, June 22, at its location at 90 Broadway Ave., Bedford.

From 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., attendees can meet the mayor and enjoy hot dogs and hamburgers while listening to a DJ and radio personalities and playing games. There will be an ice cream truck and bouncy house from noon to 2 p.m.

Attendees can also enter to win gift certificates, an Xbox or a 50-inch TV. Interested parties can also stop in to the Byrider location through June 22 to fill out an entry form.

She also said the annual Senior Picnic would be held July 11, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., and to call Annie at the Senior Center to sign up.

Summer Concert Series

Collova announced that dates for the 2019 Summer Concert Series being held indoors at the Civic Center, 5407 Turney Rd., will be July 14, July 21, July 28 and August 4. All concerts will be held from 6 to 8 p.m.

Legislation passed

The following ordinances were passed unanimously by council members Monday:

- Collaboration and inspection work on the Canal Road Resurfacing Project;

- Renewing Kimble Recycling and Disposal, Inc. for another year of citywide refuse/recycling collection and disposal;

- Applying for a grant for bulletproof vests for the police department from the Bulletproof Vest Partnership Grant Act of 1998;

- Granting all full-time and permanent part-time administrative employees two additional personal days to be used within calendar year 2019 in lieu of raises.

Also passed was a resolution ratifying the appointment by the mayor of Pamela Wilkes to the Tax Incentive Review Council to fill the unexpired term of David Mays.

The next regular meeting of council is scheduled for Monday, July 8, at 7 p.m.

Valley View Council approves Canal Road repairs

By Danielle Toth

At its regular meeting June 4, Valley View Village Council approved Resolution 2019-6-6, the first step in a repair and improvement project for Canal Road. This is a joint project with Cuyahoga Heights and Garfield Heights to repair and improve the portions of Canal Road that run through each community, Mayor Jerry Piasecki said.

Council introduced and passed the legislation the same day to meet a timeline for repairs that coincided with the other communities. Each community is responsible for its portion but will also work together for mutual benefits and efficiencies, according to the ordinance.

Council also approved Ordinance 2019-6-5, amending Section 1024.03 of the Valley View Codified Ordinances entitled "Bond Required; Release." The ordinance amends the sentence "No permit shall be granted by the Inspector of Buildings without the posting of a cash bond in the amount of $500.00" to add "or the posting of a Performance Bond in the amount of $5,000, such performance bond to remain in effect for a period of one year."

The reason for the change is so the village can work with a local utility that does not deal in cash, allowing a bond instead, Piasecki said.

Engineer Todd Sciano reported that the village went to bid on a project to update the Alexander Road ramps and nearby portion of Canal Road. Typically, when a project goes to bid, it is picked up by an online exchange that many contractors regularly access, he said. However, for some reason, this project was not picked up electronically. This could be the reason the village only received two bids for the project. Unfortunately, both bids exceeded the amount of money approved for the project, which meant the village needed to either rebid the project or rescope it to remove some items that might decrease the cost and then rebid the project, Sciano said.

Piasecki suggested the village rebid the project as a whole but also separate the ramps construction from the Canal Road construction to bid them separately, and council agreed. This project is separate from the overall Canal Road improvement project, and this portion of Canal Road is not included in that project, Sciano said.

Piasecki and Police Chief David Niro reported that on June 26 the police and fire departments will transfer to Chagrin Valley Dispatch, the communication center for 16 municipalities of the Chagrin Valley and greater Cleveland area. Both departments have downloaded their necessary software and will begin training their staff on the new systems.

"Now that we've updated our systems, we expect a smooth, seamless transition with no interruptions to service," Niro said.

Recreation Director Todd Von Ville said the community center roof recover project will be complete this summer. The recover area, he said, is part of the original building, which opened in 1998, and has seen an increase in the number of leaks over the last few years. He said the plan is to go with a recover option that would provide a 30-year guarantee at a lesser cost than tearing off the existing roof and doing a full replacement.

Councilman Jeff Wyatt reported that many Strathmore Drive residents are experiencing erosion in the areas of North Partridge and South Partridge drives. He said he walked the creek with residents of the area and observed massive erosion as well as many downed trees. Wyatt recommended the village look into the situation to correct and prevent damage. Both Piasecki and Sciano said the village would communicate with the Northeast Ohio Regional Sewer District to see what could be done.

Review: Buckeye Country Superfest in Columbus

By Danielle Toth

The Buckeye Country Superfest was back in Columbus this year with a star-studded lineup featuring RaeLynn, Midland, Chris Janson, Blake Shelton and George Strait.

This reporter, a longtime country music fan, was happy to travel to Columbus to review the concert, seated with the eight lucky Neighborhood News "Freebies" winners who also scored tickets.

The Superfest has been ongoing since 2015, although it took a one-year hiatus last year. Producers said the break was to ensure they could continue to book unique, high-quality talent. In years past, the Buckeye Country Superfest has featured big names such as Zac Brown Band, Kenny Chesney, Luke Bryan, Miranda Lambert and Keith Urban.

Held at Ohio Stadium, home of the Ohio State Buckeyes, the June 8 Superfest changed its format this year from a two-day affair to a one-day festival but still drew a large crowd of more than 55,000 cowboy-hat-wearing, boot-stomping fans.

First up on the main stage at 3:30 p.m. was RaeLynn, a 25-year-old singer and songwriter who was a contestant in Season 2 of "The Voice." The Texas native made it to the quarterfinals with the help of her coach, Blake Shelton. RaeLynn, who wore a sparkly fringed jacket and shorts combo, performed a half-hour slot that included her debut single "God Made Girls," as well as her second single "For a Boy." She also came out to perform backing vocals during Blake Shelton's performance of "Boys 'Round Here."

Following RaeLynn was Midland, performing an hour-long set. The band's rock influence was apparent in the Texas band members' 1970s-era long hair and mustaches, as well as their colorful "Nudie suits." While songs like "21st Century Honky Tonk" have a definite classic rock feel, radio hits "Drinkin' Problem" and "Burn Out" are more modern and enticed fans to sing along to the catchy choruses.

Chris Janson followed Midland, playing a one-hour-and-15-minute set that included Top 10 hits such as "Buy Me a Boat," "Fix a Drink" and "Drunk Girl." More well-known than the first two acts, the shaggy-haired Janson got the crowd going with anecdotes about his wife and four children and rags-to-riches story of living in a single-wide trailer. However, Janson also showed his fun-loving and goofy side, asking fans to flap their arms like an "eagle" and "pterodactyl" if they were having a good time. The Missouri native is the youngest living member of the Grand Ole Opry and performed using the legendary opry mic stand.

The energetic Janson warmed up the crowd for award-winner Blake Shelton, who performed a crowd-pleasing hour-and-a-half set jam-packed with favorites such as the Oklahoma native's debut single "Austin," "Some Beach" and "Ol' Red" and more recent hits like "I'll Name the Dogs," "Turnin' Me On" and "God's Country." The "The Voice" judge knew how to work the crowd, setting up a joke with a man in the audience that led into "A Guy With a Girl" and delivering hit after hit to the roaring crowd.

And while Shelton is a veteran headliner himself, at the Buckeye Country Superfest he played second fiddle to the King of Country, George Strait. At 67-years-old, Texas-born Strait was the definite star of the night, apparent in crowd T-shirts ranging from "Strait Up Cowgirl" to "Jesus and George Strait." Entertaining fans young and old, Strait performed classics such as "Amarillo by Morning" (1982), "I Cross My Heart" (1992) and "I Can Still Make Cheyenne" (1996), as well as his newest single from his 2019 album "Honky Tonk Time Machine," "Every Little Honky Tonk Bar." It's safe to say the king still reigns supreme as the whole stadium was on its feet for the more-than-two-hour set.

The Buckeye Country Superfest will be back in 2020. The date is set for June 20.

Maple Heights Council OKs process to begin installing cameras in city park

By Judith Goldsworth

In an effort to "help deter and prosecute criminal behavior," Maple Heights Council passed an ordinance at its meeting last week to begin the process of installing a security camera system at Stafford Park and other parks in the city.

The legislation authorizes Mayor Annette Blackwell, Police Chief Todd Hansen and Law Director Frank Consolo to "begin the preparation of plans and specifications and to solicit request for proposals (RFPs) for installation of a security and surveillance camera system" at the city parks, including Stafford, which has been the site of numerous shootings, some resulting in fatalities, in the past several years, according to Maple Heights police reports.

The most recent shooting at the park in the Libby-Warrensville Center Road area of the city, the evening of Thursday, May 23, sent two 18-year-old men to the hospital with gunshot wounds, police stated.

Hansen said the installation of a security and surveillance camera system will assist the police in resolving instances of criminal conduct and aid in discouraging and preventing loitering, vandalism and other criminal behavior which are a direct threat to public safety at Stafford Park and all city-owned parks and recreation areas.

Stafford Park lighting

Also in the interest of deterring crime at Stafford Park, council passed an ordinance at last week's meeting authorizing Blackwell to spend up to $50,000 in state funds for improved LED lighting at the park.

The legislation also states that the city can use the grant money for advertising and seeking bids from contractors and suppliers for the lighting project.

Other legislation passed

Council passed an ordinance to amend the city's budget for this fiscal year, as recommended by Finance Director Tinita Tillman, "to account for certain additional expenditures" and to submit the amended budget to the Cuyahoga County Fiscal Officer.

The figure for this year's budget from January 1 - December 31, 2019, as amended, is set at $21,410,335, with estimated receipts at $27,165,711, according to documentation the Finance Department provided with the legislation.

Also passed was a resolution for Blackwell to enter into an agreement with Chagrin Valley Engineering to conduct a housing survey, in an amount not to exceed $2,500, to update the city's Community Reinvestment Act boundaries to encompass more areas within the city, including the Valley Ranch development area in the Turney-Dunham neighborhood.

Also passed at last week's meeting: a resolution to enter into a Fuel Supply Agreement with the Maple Heights City Schools to permit the school district to purchase fuel from the city at six cents more per gallon than what the city pays for fuel; a resolution to enter into an agreement with VBA Vision regarding group vision insurance for full-time city employees, following last month's bankruptcy and sudden closure of the previous vision insurance provider, Union Eye Care; and a resolution designating September 2019 as "Prostate Cancer Awareness Month" in Maple Heights.

In committee

A resolution for Blackwell to enter into an agreement with Golden Triangle Development, LLC, of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, to sell the company four vacant lots on Friend, Summit, Gerard and Morgan streets in the city, and requiring new construction of four single family houses on the lots, was placed in the Housing and Economic Development Committee, Council Clerk Leonette Cicirella stated.

Placed on first reading at last week's meeting was an ordinance adopting the Alternative Tax Budget Information of the city for the fiscal year beginning January 1, 2020, and to submit it to the Cuyahoga County Budget Commission.

Burglary

On June 4 at about 2:45 p.m., police responded to the 3500 block of Gertrude Avenue for a burglary report. The victim said she left her home at about noon on June 3. When she returned home the morning of June 4, she noticed her door was hanging open and the electronic deadbolt lock would not close. She reported several stolen items, including a bathroom sink vanity, mini refrigerator, flat screen television, Xbox One and controller set, iMac tower PC, iPad Pro, Roku TV and $280 cash. Police requested the Special Investigations Unit to follow up for prints and photos.

Garfield Heights

Disturbance

On June 7 at about 11:25 p.m., a woman called 911 to report that a group of women were "going crazy" at Bonkers at 5147 Turney Road. Police responded and observed women yelling and screaming outside the bar. They said they were pepper sprayed by the bouncer. One of the women stated she was at the bar with her mother and friends when there was a dispute about the bill. The bartender asked the bouncer to escort the women from the bar, but one woman tried to stay behind to get keys from her mother. She said the bouncer picked her up and carried her out of the bar. Her family then "jumped" the bouncer to get him off her, and the bouncer pepper sprayed the group. The woman reported she was punched in the eye during the altercation, and the officer observed swelling near her eye. EMS was called to the scene to treat the women for exposure to pepper spray. They declined transport to the hospital. The bouncer said after the bartender asked the women to leave, he gave them 5 minutes to close their tabs. The group wouldn't leave so he attempted to escort them out and was jumped. He said the women were punching and kicking him so he pepper sprayed them. He then went inside the bar and locked the doors. Police advised the women to come to the station and file reports after a group of men showed up on scene on behalf of the women. The woman whose face was injured came to the station and gave a statement. The bouncer also gave police a written statement but did not wish to pursue charges.

Motor vehicle theft

• On June 9 at about 10:40 p.m., officers responded to the 6000 block of Andover

Boulevard for a report of a motor vehicle theft. The woman said she parked her car on the street between 1 and 2 p.m. on June 9. When she arrived back home at about 7 p.m., her vehicle was gone. She did not know if the vehicle had been locked. The vehicle was entered into LEADS/NCIC, and the woman was advised to contact her insurance company.

• On June 5 at about 4:55 p.m., a man came to the station to report a motorcycle theft. The man said he left his house in the 4800 block of E. 90th Street at about 6 a.m. that morning for work. When he returned at about 4:45 p.m., he discovered the motorcycle was missing from his garage. The man said he did not see any signs of forced entry and that the door was closed. The vehicle will be entered into LEADS.

Weapons offense

On June 2 at about 6:30 p.m., officers responded to the area of East 94th Street and Reed Avenue for a report of two teens waving a black handgun in the air and pointing it at people. Officers checked the area and did not find anyone.

However, dispatch received another complaint of juveniles matching the description with a gun in the area of Garfield Boulevard and Turney Road. Police located the boys in the Save-a-Lot parking lot and ordered them to the ground. They confiscated a BB gun. The juveniles were arrested and released pending charges with the youth bureau of inducing panic and disorderly conduct.

OVI

• On June 4 at about 4:40 a.m., a woman reported that she saw a vehicle parked in the apron of a business near East 131st Street and Forestdale Drive with the driver slumped over the wheel. The officer located the vehicle, which was partly in the roadway and still running. The officer knocked on the window, but the man remained unresponsive. Because it appeared he had overdosed, the officer requested EMS.

Backup arrived and officers were able to open the driver's side door. They observed a syringe and plastic bottle cap in the center console. EMS arrived and administered eight doses of Narcan before transporting the man to Marymount Hospital. When the man was awake and responsive at the hospital, he voluntarily told an officer he had relapsed on heroin before driving the car but refused a chemical test. The man was charged with OVI, OVI/refusal and no seat belt.

Railroads to make scheduled repairs in Bedford, other transportation issues discussed by council

By Judith Goldsworth

One of the railroad lines that runs through Bedford will be making repairs to its crossing at West Glendale this week and other repairs by another railroad are scheduled for next week for a crossing at West Grace Street. The companies have been asked to coordinate their schedules to have the least impact on motorists and residents, City Manager Mike Mallis said at the council meeting last week.

In a statement released on Monday, Mallis clarified the closure plans: "Norfolk Southern will be closing the West Glendale crossing, June 10th through June 14th. Cleveland Commercial Railroad will be closing the West Grace crossing June 17th through June 21st."

For the most current information on road closures in Bedford, visit the city's website at www.bedfordoh.gov, city officials stated.

Also regarding transportation needs in the city, an ordinance for Bedford to enter into a contract with Senior Transportation Connection, at a cost not to exceed $40,000, to provide rides for senior residents in the city, including possibly nights and weekends, was placed on second reading.

The Cleveland-based transportation service serves 20,000 Cuyahoga County residents every year, according to its website, and states that it "provides coordinated and affordable transportation to seniors and adults with disabilities throughout Cuyahoga County since 2005."

The STC covers most of the costs of each trip, with a small fare or donation from the passenger.

Residents who use the city's current senior transport services would continue to pay a $1 fee each way if the city chose to go with STC, Mallis said. "This company also allows for evenings and weekend transportation, so if a senior wants to go to church on Sunday, they can arrange that."

Meadowbrook bills on second reading

Three pieces of legislation to change zoning uses of land around the Meadowbrook shopping center at Northfield and Rockside, which were tabled at a previous meeting and discussed at a Planning Commission public hearing held in May, were put back on the agenda and placed on second reading last week.

The rezoning is intended to facilitate development by Innovest Global, which has announced plans to open a 193,000-square-foot industrial operations center in the former Wal-Mart Supercenter site at 22209 Rockside Rd. Since early 2016, when the Wal-Mart closed, city officials have been making efforts to find an occupant for the property.

The legislation will continue to be discussed by council before possible final passage at a future meeting.

Legislation passed

Three pieces of legislation regarding additional street lighting in the city and a special levy assessment for the improvements were passed at last week's meeting.

Also passed was an ordinance to levy assessments for garbage and refuse collection, recycling and disposal during the tax year 2019, to be collected in 2020. Cost of trash collection is currently $14 a month per unit.

Councilman Donald Saunders voted "no" on the legislation on the grounds that senior citizens often had smaller households and much less trash to be collected than larger households, even though they paid the same rate, and he felt a senior discount should be offered to those residents.

Also passed was a resolution to approve the proposed 2019 tax budget for the year from January 1, 2020 - December 31, 2020, a resolution to request the county auditor to advance taxes from tax levy proceeds for 2019 collected in 2020, and an ordinance to make additional appropriations.

Finance Director Frank Gambosi said that passing the tax budget was the first part of the process in implementing the 2020 budget and allowed the city to receive local government funds, which he estimated at more than $319,000 for next year.

An ordinance to purchase liquid ferric chloride from PVS Technologies, Inc. for the city's wastewater treatment plant was passed. Mallis said that PVS's cost for the chemical, used to treat and purify the city's waste water before it is discharged back into the local waterways, came in at .287 cents per dry pound, and the contract called for 160,000 dry tons of liquid ferric chloride per year. "This is an on demand contract and we will purchase it as needed," Mallis added.

Also passed was a motion to accept the planning commission's recommendation regarding the request for a conditional use approval to allow the structure at 348 Broadway Ave., to be used as a day care and learning center for older children, ages 5-12, Mallis said.

Announcements

Councilwoman Heather Rhoades announced that "a one of a kind interactive and immersive theatre experience" entitled "Wanderlust," dealing with the infamous Kingsbury Run torso murders of the 1930s, would be held in Bedford's downtown on July 25-28 and August 1, 3, and 4. For more information, go to shadowoftherun.com.

Rhoades also stated that the Garden Club will begin judging "Bedford's Beauties," for homeowners and business owners who have made the extra effort to beautify their properties for the summer months.

City officials extended their condolences to the family of former longtime City Manager Art Dickard, a United States Marine Corps veteran who served in the Korean War in the Chosin Reservoir. Dickard, who took part in every Memorial Day parade in the city, passed away just before the holiday last month, at the age of 89.

Condolences were also offered to the family of Connie Dickson, a very active member of the Bedford Church of the Nazarene and several Bedford city organizations, who recently passed away at the age of 96.

PERSONALS

Holy Spirit, Holy Spirit you who solve all problems light all roads so that I can attain my goal. You who give me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me. I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as you confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you even in spite of all material illusions. I wish to be with you eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy toward me and mine.
The person must say this prayer for 3 consecutive days. After 3 days the favor will be granted even if it may appear difficult. This prayer must be published immediately after the favor is granted without mentioning the favor, nly your initials should appear at the bottom. L.O.

Community police reports

•On June 1 at about 12:15 a.m., an officer responding to an unrelated incident in the area of Turney Road and Richland Avenue observed a vehicle travel in front of the cruiser, across the double yellow traffic lines and into oncoming traffic. The vehicle then made an abrupt right turn onto Richland, causing the officer to swerve and brake to avoid a collision. The officer conducted a traffic stop and could smell an odor of alcoholic beverage coming from the driver. The man declined standardized field sobriety tests. At the jail, the driver provided a breath sample of .264% BAC. He was cited for OVI, OVI over .17% and lanes of travel.

•On May 30 at about 12:50 p.m., officers observed a vehicle traveling east in the area of Broadway Avenue and McCracken Road with no front license plates. They initiated a traffic stop, and the car drifted into the center lane twice before stopping near the middle of the east-bound lane. Officers observed a strong odor of marijuana coming from the vehicle, as well as marijuana pieces on the driver's lap. The driver had reddish eyes and slurred speech. He also appeared confused and unsteady on his feet. Police learned he had a warrant. The man told officers he had marijuana in his pocket, which was weighed at 4.91 grams. He provided a breath sample of 0% BAC and a urine sample. The man told officers he had just finished smoking and was high. He was arrested for possession, OVI, display and marked lanes.

•On May 30 at about 10:50 p.m., police responded to the area of Mapleleaf Drive and E. 135th Street for a report of a van that struck multiple vehicles and objects in the area. Officers spoke with the driver, who appeared disoriented and unsure of his surroundings. He said he did not consume any alcohol but had taken some pills. The man said he has cerebral palsy and is disabled. He also denied striking anything despite apparent damage to his vehicle. The driver was asked to exit the vehicle, and the officers noticed odors of marijuana and alcohol. During an inventory of the vehicle, officers found a duffel bag containing unknown pills and suspected marijuana, cocaine and heroin, as well as cash. The man became emotional and said he was suicidal. He was transported to Marymount Hospital and refused a urine test. He was charged with OVI, hit/skip, failure to control, full time and attention and driving under suspension. He also has previous drug trafficking charges and a previous OVI. When officers tracked his path of travel, they discovered damage to three cars, a fence, a stop sign and two lawns. The vehicle was previously under special attention for possible drug activity.

•On May 27 at about 9:30 p.m., police responded to a motor vehicle accident at the corner of Granger and Turney roads. The officer said the driver appeared to be heavily intoxicated as her speech was slurred and she smelled of alcohol. She also had difficulty putting the car in park and said she believed she was on Pearl Road near her home. The woman was arrested for OVI and assured clear distance ahead. At the jail, she was offered standardized field sobriety tests but was too intoxicated to perform them.

•On May 26 at about 4:50 a.m., officers received a report of a vehicle that crashed into the front porch of a home in the 4400 block of E. 131st Street. When officers arrived, they observed a utility pole knocked off its base with wires laying on the ground and debris from the pole in the street. There were tire tracks through the front yard of the address leading to an SUV. The driver attempted to exit the vehicle but had difficulty because of damage to the car but eventually made it out. When speaking to the driver, officers detected a strong odor of alcoholic beverage. He was also unsteady on his feet, slurred his speech and had bloodshot, watery eyes. The driver refused to take the standardized field sobriety test and was placed under arrest. He consented to a breath test at the jail that showed his BAC to be .265. He was cited for OVI, failure to control and driving on tree lawns/curb.

•On May 25 at about 2:25 a.m., an officer stopped at a red light at the intersection of Turney Road and Antenucci Boulevard observed a pickup truck approach from the north. The officer heard a loud scraping noise that got louder as the truck got closer. When the truck stopped next to him, the officer saw an orange construction barrel wedged under the front of the vehicle. The officer tried to pull the truck over near the intersection of Turney and Oak Park Boulevard, but the vehicle failed to stop while gradually increasing its speed and weaving within its lane. The driver turned eastbound onto York Boulevard and then pulled into a driveway in the 12000 block of York. The driver looked at the officer, who was shouting for him to turn the vehicle off and exit the truck. The officer noticed a strong odor of alcohol coming from the vehicle, and the man's speech was barely audible. He was taken into custody without incident. Officers found 40 bundles of singles in the truck worth $400. The man was cited for OVI, failure to comply, no seatbelt, speed and driving in marked lanes.

•On May 24 at about 4:40 p.m., an officer on duty on Transportation Boulevard near I-480 received a report of a possible impaired driver. The officer located the car in the Giant Eagle parking lot at 5744 Transportation Blvd. The car blocked traffic and the driver was asleep behind the wheel with the car running. Officers observed a strong odor of alcohol and woke the driver up. He had bloodshot eyes and could not speak or exit the vehicle. Due to the man's high intoxication level, he was transported to Marymount Hospital for treatment. He would not respond to requests for a urine sample. The man was charged with OVI, ALS refusal and seatbelt.
